

Sushi, yogurt coming to Wells Fargo Center

Wells Fargo Center in downtown Norfolk has added two more food options to its street-level space.

Tokyo Fresh Asian Bistro and Bar is expected to open this fall at Freemason and Monticello avenues, according to S.L Nusbaum Realty Co., which handles leasing for the center. The restaurant will serve sushi and other Asian fare.

Song “Sam” Huang is a partner in Dash Development LLC, which owns Tokyo Fresh as well as five of the region’s largest Asian buffet restaurants.

The same company also owns Yo-Mix Frozen Yogurt Bar, which plans to open in late spring in the space next to Tokyo Fresh. Construction is expected to begin this winter on both spaces.

They will join two other eateries, Buffalo Wild Wings Grill & Bar and Bite Restaurant & Catering, at Wells Fargo Center.

– Carolyn Shapiro

Source URL (retrieved on 02/02/2012 - 12:18): <http://hamptonroads.com/2012/02/sushi-yogurt-coming-wells-fargo-center>