

Hope You're Hungry: Downtown Norfolk Restaurant Week is Next Week

January 10, 2017 By Downtown Norfolk Council

The ever-popular Downtown Norfolk Restaurant Week runs January 15 to 22 with an opportunity to experience great dining at very appetizing prices.

Downtown restaurants offer price-fixed, multi-course dinners for $35 or $25, and lunch for $12.

image | Voila! Cuisine Internationale

For participating restaurants, menu offerings and parking information, visit here. Reservations are recommended.

Restaurant Week isn't just delectable dining at a delicious price, it's a winter social scene as well. So make plans with your friends now for big fun and big savings. Gift certificates are also available.

“Our award-winning Downtown Norfolk Restaurant Week is the perfect opportunity to sample our distinct cuisine scene,” said Mary Miller, president and CEO of Downtown Norfolk Council. “Participating restaurants get creative with special menus and pairings with wines from Torres and specialty cocktails from Silver Fox.”

Downtown Norfolk's Park Happy initiative provides free two-hour meter parking after 6 p.m. and on weekends. For Downtown workers, monthly parking pass hours are good to 9 p.m.

Downtown Norfolk Restaurant Week is coordinated by Downtown Norfolk Council. Sponsors include Torres, Performance Foodservice, Sysco, Silver Fox, U.S. Foods, Southern Bank, VisitNorfolk and Caesar's Entertainment.