It's the perfect time to rally your friends to try one or more of the 24 participating restaurants. Try some of the new restaurants that have recently opened in Downtown or visit an old favorite. Gift certificates are also available.

“Downtown’s dining scene has never been more vibrant,” said Mary Miller, president and CEO of Downtown Norfolk Council. “We have something for everyone from fresh seafood to barbeque and international cuisine. For our Downtown workers, there’s an opportunity to enjoy Restaurant Week during lunch for a special two-course treat.”
