

Waterside District in Norfolk opening in May with free concerts

March 16, 2017, 8:13AM

The Waterside District in downtown Norfolk is planning festivities, including free concerts, for its opening celebration May 11-14. Waterside opens to the public May 4.

Grand opening concerts will feature Weezer and New Politics on May 11 and country music artist Chase Rice on May 13.

Blue Moon Taphouse will feature a Sunday brunch for Mother's Day while Harbor Club will host family events like face painting, magicians and a bounce house.

Country singer Michael Ray will perform May 4 with Streetmosphere performing May 6 and May 7.

View the schedule of activities on the Waterside website here.

Copyright © 2017, Daily Press